Friendship, Philanthropy & Social Activities are the Jewels of CWC

PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Welcome to Carolina Women's Club ... an incredible group of diverse women!

It has only been a year since rebranding our club name and logo and what a year it has been! We are excited to keep that momentum going this year by continuing to embrace and nurture the crowning jewels in our logo; Friendship, Philanthropy and Social Activities. With Philanthropy being the largest jewel in our crown, we have planned a fabulous "Year of Giving"!

CWC gives to our member's fun and informative luncheon programs. This year, our luncheons include a fashion show, interior design updates, Dr. Ophelia Garmon-Brown sharing her vision "Our Kids, Our Community", and back by popular demand "CWC Member Appreciation Lunch".

The many clubs of CWC allows members to give to each other through fun events and activities that help develop great friendships. With clubs like Philanthropy, Book Club, Culinary, Girl's Night Out, Bridge, Bunco, Couples Wine and Dine, Home and Garden, Travel and Culture, Spur of the Moment ... there is definitely something for everyone!

CWC gives back to our community with our philanthropic fund raisers. December's Annual Holiday Luncheon to benefit Safe Alliance (aka Women's Shelter). We are excited to announce our keynote speaker will be Erika Bryant, WSOC News Anchor.

Our Spring Fling Fund Raiser with Bill Cummings to benefit ANSWER Scholarship is a wonderful evening filled with great music, good friends and silent auction. All proceeds go to ANSWER Scholarship which gives scholarships to working single mothers.

The YWCA is also a strong focus of giving for CWC. This year, philanthropy members will be publishing our first CWC Cookbook! Proceeds from this year's cookbook will be donated to the YWCA.

Giving to our community is also achieved by our "Moments of Service" and community outreach. Our "Moments of Service" include Safe Alliance, Second Harvest Food Bank, School Tools, Purses for a Purpose, Pink Bows and more.

We are delighted that you have joined our dynamic Carolina Women's Club!
